

Howlo Wolf Pack!

What lovely weather we have been having! I hope you have all been enjoying the sunshine; maybe some of you have been tracking it across the sky, and experimenting with shadows like we did earlier in the year. I have really enjoyed getting your messages on the blog and seeing the photos you have been sending to the year group emails.

I am part of the teaching team in school and I have been in Wolf teaching the children who are in, but I can say the pack does feel very small and empty without the rest of the pack to howl at me. We have been having lots of fun and learning new things. Last week, we did a project on Red Kites and learned how to play battleships. You will be pleased to hear that I have managed to keep my desk tidy-I hope you are all very proud of me!

When I have not been at work, I have been busy tidying cupboards, which has not lasted too long, and I have been enjoying sitting in the garden and bouncing on the trampoline. I have played Mr Hayward at a game of Fifa, but I think I need to work on my scoring skills! I have also tried my hand at hairdressing but I have been told not to quit my day job!

The family hamster-Hammy-has been out a lot at bedtime for story time because he sleeps all day long. He often has a roll around in his ball whilst I clean him out; sometimes I lose him (in his ball) and have to send my boys on a hamster hunt to find him!

I am missing you all greatly and look forward to hearing from you and what you have been up to. You can contact me on the Wolf Class 2020 blog on Purple Mash or via the year group emails.

Take care and stay safe!
